Seven different Monroe County schools coming together for 'Grease' at McQuaid Jesuit

ROCHESTER, N.Y., FEB 28, 2008...The '50s - A time when Saturday night meant a burger and shake at the local soda shop followed by the latest thriller at the drive-in movie theatre, and then a drive to Lovers' Lane - DA's, poodle skirts, class rings wrapped in angora.

From March 12-15, the '50s live again when McQuaid Jesuit presents "Grease." Performances each night are at 7:30. Tickets are $12 for adults and $10 for students and senior citizens and may be reserved in advance by calling 473-1130 ext. 100 beginning March 3, or they may be purchased at the door prior to each performance.

The cast includes 17 McQuaid students and 17 girls from seven different schools in the Rochester area – Allendale-Columbia, Brighton High School, East Rochester, High School, Our Lady of Mercy, Penfield High School, Pittsford Sutherland High School, and one student who is home-schooled (M.C.C.).

McQuaid Jesuit is a private, Catholic college preparatory school for young men in grades 7-12. It is named for the first Catholic Bishop of Rochester, the Most Rev. Bernard J. McQuaid. The school's mission is to foster the development of the spiritual, intellectual, physical, emotional and aesthetic talents of young men through personal concern for each student, competitive educational programs, a distinctive Jesuit spirit, and a formative sense of community. McQuaid Jesuit offers nearly $1 million in financial aid to students in grades 7-12 who qualify academically, but don't have the financial resources to attend.
