

February 2018

Dear McQuaid Jesuit Parents and Guardians:

This has been an amazing year at McQuaid Jesuit. In November, after more than a year of planning and 16 months of construction, we dedicated the Wegman Family Science and Technology Center. In January, following midterm exams, our faculty and students moved into the facility and began the new semester with high expectations. For all the planning we did, the architectural drawings we reviewed, and the construction progress we monitored, nothing compares to the sight of our young men participating in a chemistry experiment, engaging in a research project, or creating a robot in the state-of-the-art facility. As Danny Wegman, '65, insisted when we first began dreaming about the new center, "We need to inspire our young men!"

Inspiring young men to great things is a lofty mission, one that requires commitment and sacrifice. Our students become the great men God created them to be because of people like you, their parents and guardians. You commit yourselves to your son's education, and this certainly involves sacrifice. I am both inspired by this, and I am grateful for all you do to ensure your son is not only prepared to thrive in college but, more importantly, to succeed in life!

With this in mind, I am writing to inform you that tuition for the 2018-19 school year has been set at $14,520 (with an additional graduation fee of $300 for seniors). This level represents a 3.9 percent increase over last year's tuition, and is well below the actual cost to educate each of our students. Each year our donors help close the gap between tuition charged and costs incurred by giving generously to the Annual Fund or by participating in events such as BASH. I am grateful to our donor families, alumni, and friends for partnering with you in making all of this possible.

A Jesuit education should be affordable for all who are admitted to McQuaid, and our financial aid program is designed to make that a reality for your son. I encourage every interested parent to complete their financial aid application. More information can be found on our website, www.mcquaid.org/admissions/financial-aid, or by contacting Jennifer Roxstrom, P '13, at (585) 256-6180 or jroxstrom@mcquaid.org.

The value of inspiring young men to great things is immeasurable. Thank you for the commitments you make and sacrifices you embrace in order to inspire your son to great things.

Sincerely yours,

Rev. Robert E. Reiser, S.J.
President
