Dear Member of the McQuaid Class of 2019,

Greetings from McQuaid Jesuit! As you enjoy your final semester of college, your plans for next year are no doubt gaining urgency and focus. Indeed, it is amazing that--somehow--nearly four years have slipped by since you and your fellow Knights tailgated outside Seymour Field, cheered on classmates in the Ryan Gymnasium, took a final curtain call in Hogenkamp Auditorium, finished your McQuaid classwork, walked across the Stage of Eastman Theatre, and enjoyed that final Simba cheer on Gibbs Street. If 1800 South Clinton Avenue still feels a bit like home, you may be interested in a paid internship opportunity for the 2023-2024 school year: the McQuaid Alumni Corps (MAC). We are looking for some service-minded, energetic candidates willing to share their talents while gaining valuable professional experience at McQuaid Jesuit.

MACs will provide service to the school in any number of capacities: academic support, communications, alumni relations, fundraising, and campus ministry. While MACs will be responsible for their own housing and health insurance, a monthly stipend will be provided to cover living expenses.
